Memorial Day weekend offers chance for celebration, observance

BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

The long Memorial Day weekend offered plenty of opportunities for celebration in Hancock County -- such as the annual St. Clare Seafood Festival -- but it also afforded a chance to remember those in the armed services who gave their lives defending the nation.

The St. Clare Fest kicked off on Friday with a "Tribute to the Military" and first-responders, led by parish priest Fr. Jacob-Matthew Smith.

Senior Center celebrates 50 years of 'blissful' aging

BY CASSANDRA FAVRE
STAFF WRITER

On Saturday, the Hancock County Senior Citizens Center celebrated "50 Years of Blissful Aging."

Senior center director Arlene Johnson said she has worked at the center for the past 38 years.

"For 38 years, I've been a 95 percent senior center director and five percent mom" she said. "I'd bring my kids up here and I'd work them. They'd mop, they'd sweep, you name it they did it. Over the years, it has made us the people that we are, it's made us the caring people that we are for our community."

Johnson credits community support, along with that of current and past elected officials for the center's continued success.

"Our center was the first one in the state," she said. "This is the model project. We're still standing. We've been through hurricanes, we've been through COVID and we're all still here."

Johnson thanked many of the center's supporters including SALT Triad, SMPDD, Senior Prom Committee, Hancock County Human Resource Agency, Solace Hospice, Hancock County Sheriff's Office, Humana Home Health, Dunbar Village, WQRZ, Hollywood Casino, Edmond Fahey Funeral Home, Silver Slipper

Blaze at Jourdan River shores claims two lives, destroys three homes

ECHO STAFF

Hancock County authorities have identified the victims of the Jourdan River Shores house fire on Saturday evening as Magee, Miss. residents Mark Scott Failor, age 58, and wife Candace Failor, 52.

The Failors were visiting the area and staying at a Jourdan River Shores home when the fire broke out, officials said.

The cause of the fire is still under investigation

Police closed Hwy. 603 between Texas Flat Road and Pontiac Drive at about 10:25 p.m.

Saturday while firefighters from several agencies battled the blaze.

"Thankfully, two neighbors swam across the river and removed the butane tanks and boat filled with fuel from the house where the fire began," Jimmy D. McGuire said on social media. "Good to have brave, quick thinking neighbors who knew what needed to be done in this emergency situation."

Witnesses said one home burned completely while two others were heavily damaged.

Meghan D'Angelo has created a GoFundMe account to help those who lost their property to the blaze.

"A very close family friend of ours, Derwood, lost everything in a house fire last night on Hwy. 603, including two of his close friends," she said on the GoFundMe page. "We ask for prayers for him! Anyone who can donate we appreciate it! I will also be getting clothes and shoe sizes for anyone wanting to donate items. He lost everything last night. Again please continue to send prayers! He needs a lot of them!"

You can donate to that account at https://www.gofundme.com/f/family-friend-house-fire-on-hwy-603?utm_campaign=p_cp+share-sheet&utm_medium=copy_link_all&utm_source=customer.

Dr. Daniel Edney Appointed New State Health Officer Effective in August

SEA COAST ECHO

Last week, the Mississippi State Board of Health announces that Daniel P. Edney, MD, FACP, FASAM, will be appointed as the new State Health Officer of the Mississippi State Department of Health (MSDH), effective

August 1, 2022.

Edney currently holds the position of Deputy State Health Officer. He initially joined MSDH as chief medical officer and regional health officer for the Central Public Health Region in February 2021.

According to State Health Officer Dr. Thomas Dobbs, Edney has been a tremendous asset since he joined the health department, and especially during the COVID pandemic.

Dist. 4 U.S. Rep. primaries scheduled for next Tuesday

ECHO STAFF

Hancock Countians are scheduled to head back to the polls next Tuesday, June 7, for primary elections in the District 4 U.S. Representative seat.

Incumbent Republican Steven Palazzo, who was first elected to the seat in 2010, qualified to seek reelection. He faces primary challenges from six Republicans including two Hancock County residents — Clay Wagner and Carl Boyanton — as well as Brice Wiggins, Raymond N. Brooks, Mike Ezell and Kidron Peterson.

Two Democrats qualified to seek the party's nomination for the seat, including Johnny L. DuPree and David Sellers.

Libertarian Alden Patrick Johnson qualified to be on the Libertarian primary ballot.

Several judicial races also will be on the general election ballot in November, but since judges run as independents, no party primaries will be held for those races.

St. Stanislaus' Class of 2022.

SEA COAST ECHO

Saint Stanislaus held its Baccalaureate Mass and Commencement Exercises on Saturday, May 22, at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church, which concluded its 167th year of Catholic education. The Class of 2022 received their high school diplomas during the ceremony, and the Saint Stanislaus administrative team led the conferral of diplomas and presentation of graduation awards.

For the twenty-second time in Saint Stanislaus' history, Honors Diplomas and Medallions were presented to the following graduates: Joseph Bradford, Gus Breisacher, Clayton Bryan, Ben Carrigee, Jack DiMento, Alex Fabra, Reid Fairley, Byron Krohn, Jackson LeBlanc, Carson Leverett, Keegan Leverett, Connor Macomber, and Dylan McShane.

The Hancock County Chamber of Commerce Award was presented to Brandon Rhodes in recognition of the qualities of scholarship and character.

Keegan Leverett received the Scholar-Athlete Award in recognition of excellence in both scholarly and athletic endeavors and for lettering in at least two varsity sports.

Kendall Desporte was named the Jeanne Simon Award recipient for being an unheralded influence for good on the Saint Stanislaus community.

The Saint Stanislaus Alumni Association Award was presented to Jackson LeBlanc in recognition for concern for his fellow man through projects involving the corporal and spiritual works of mercy.

The American Legion Award, given by the Clement R. Bontemps, Post #139 of the American Legion, was presented to Clayton Bryan in recognition of his service to his community as well as his demonstration of the high qualities of honor, courage, scholarship, leadership, service, companionship, and character.

The Conduct Award for a Resident Student was given to Jackon Reid in recognition of his whole-hearted cooperation, which has been a source of inspiration and good example to the entire student body.

The Brother Joseph Donovan Character Cup, is presented to a day student and resident student who takes responsibility for his own holistic education and who contributes by word and example to the creation of a healthy environment for his peers. In addition to qualities such as honesty, integrity, dependability, and courage, a Brother Joseph Donovan Character Cup recipient is also a young man who takes the Gospel mandate to serve others to heart. Reginald Mcintyre was presented the resident student Character Cup, while Ethan Jacobi was presented the day student Character Cup.

The President's Award is the highest award offered by Saint Stanislaus to a graduating senior. It is presented to the student who has demonstrated to an outstanding degree the qualities of leadership, responsibility, initiative, manners and stability. The President's Award was presented to Jack DiMento.

Jack DiMento was recognized as the Class of 2022 Salutatorian, and Keegan Leverett was recognized as the Valedictorian.

Jack finished his time at SSC with a weighted cumulative GPA of 4.48. Jack was a member of Student Council for 5 years and most recently served as Vice President. He is a member of National Junior Honor Society, National Honor Society, and French Honor Society. Jack is also a member of Mu Alpha Theta and the Hancock Youth Leadership Academy. Jack's biggest academic achievement this year was being named a National Merit Finalist. Jack will be attending the University of Mississippi where he will pursue a pre-law course of study.

Keegan's weighted GPA was a 4.50. He is a member of the Cross Country, Soccer, and Track Teams. He has been a member of Student Council, National Honor Society, and was a Student Minister. Keegan is a member of Hancock County Leadership Academy and is a Student Ambassador through the SSC Admissions Office. Keegan will be attending the University of Mississippi in the Fall where he will be studying biochemistry with hopes to attend med school after completion of his undergraduate degree.

After receiving their diplomas, the members of the Class of 2022 received their Saint Stanislaus Alumni Pin and were formally inducted into the Saint Stanislaus Alumni Association. The seniors were led in the induction by Mr. Joseph Gex II, Saint Stanislaus Class of 1988 and Saint Stanislaus Alumni Director.

Over 80% of the Class of 2022 earned scholarships totalling over 4.4 million dollars.

Flag Retirement Program

Edmond Fahey Funeral Home works with local residents and the veterans services organizations to properly retire any U.S. flag that has reached the end of its service.
Our program is designed to honor our national heroes, our military veterans, and to give dignity to our American Flag when it is no longer worthy of display.
We strive to see that each veteran being cremated has a flag. There is no charge for this service to our veterans.

According to the United States code, Title 4, Chapter 1, Subsection 8: "The flag, when it is in such condition that it is no longer a fitting emblem for display, should be destroyed in a dignified way, preferably by burning."

If you would like to honor a deceased veteran by donating an aged or worn flag to be properly disposed of, you may do so by delivering the flags to our funeral home located on the corner of Necaise Avenue and Main Street.

"We pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

REUNITED

"I realized I was thinking of you, and I began to wonder how long you'd been on my mind. Then it occurred to me: Since I met you, you've never left," — Author unknown.

All my life I've always gravitated towards the older folks in my life.

Maybe it's because I've always felt that I was an old soul of sorts. I just never really enjoyed being around my people my own age.

I had the privilege of getting to know my maternal great-grandmother, or Granny Great, as we called her.

One of my most stark memories of her is when I was in elementary school and came down with the chicken pox right before the family came to our house to visit.

STAFF COLUMN
BY Cassandra Favre

Well, as they do, the pox itched and itched and I was constantly moving around, trying not to scratch the bumps, but also needing some relief.

Well Granny Great, she took her cane and nudged me with it and told me to stop wriggling around.

I was blessed to know several of my great aunts and great uncles as well. The times spent with them are some of my happiest childhood memories.

The last of my grandparents passed away in 2015. But I had a full set up until my first year of college in 2001.

There's something magical about grandparents. My mind is always filled with memories of them and — for example — my perfume collection is dotted with scents that remind me of them and provide comfort when I need it the most.

All that to say, last Saturday, I was reunited with some of my acquaintances from the Hancock County Senior Citizens Center.

While I was there to cover the 50th celebration of the center, I was more excited to see everyone again.

Due to COVID, several of the regular events, like the senior citizen prom, have been put on hold, so I haven't seen them as much as I used to.

But it was so very nice to see their smiling faces, hear their laughter, and visit with as many I could.

They all asked about my dad and his new kidney. Several asked about my little nephew.

It made me smile to watch the seniors dancing in the parking lot and I know that this type of camaraderie is important for senior citizens.

But, I also don't know if they even realize how important it is to me.

Hancock History: Paranormal Spirits In the Old BSL City Hall

HANCOCK HISTORY
BY James Keating M.D.

In 1904, the Bay St. Louis City Aldermen bought a piece of property on Second Street intended to be the location of a City Hall. The 1.6 acres of land was purchased for $950 from the Sisters of St. Joseph Academy. The architects Dibol and Owen planned a classic revival structure. The contract for $8,750 was awarded to G.G. Gardebled. The city floated $5,000 in bonds to help pay for the building which was completed in four months. Numerous renovations over the years have eliminated the single jail or holding cell on the first floor. In 1986 this city hall was added to the National Register of Historic Places. After Hurricane Katrina, City Hall moved to its present location on Highway 90.

According to urban legend, this building is haunted. Different occupants have reported strange things or weird occurrences. A paranormal investigation team, Ghost Chasers of Mississippi, confirmed the presence of ghosts and claimed to have connected with the spirits of an eight- year-old girl and two men.

In 1928, John Dambrino was shot by an inmate, Silas Richardson, in the jail at the City Hall. Richardson was a 32-year-old citizen of Logtown who was suspected of stealing an automobile. He also shot the Chief of Police, Mark Oliver, and escaped. A massive search was conducted by several hundred men and police all over Hancock County and Harrison County roads, bridges, and passing trains, using bloodhounds. Rewards were offered totaling $650 for his capture, dead or alive. However, the night of the murder, Richardson had jumped a southbound freight train to New Orleans. He stayed at a boarding house at 1221 Poydras Street for ten days working daily for a ditching contractor. He then boarded a train and came back to the Bay where he was recognized and arrested.

Dambrino died and Richardson was tried, found guilty, and hanged at the County Jail adjacent to the County Courthouse on May 2, 1929. A crowd of approximately five hundred people gathered around the courthouse jail, but only thirty-five persons consisting of county officials, physicians, members of the clergy, police, and press were permitted in the jailhouse to witness the hanging.

No one has ever been hanged at the old City Hall. It is unknown if the ghost of Silas Richardson haunts this building. It is therefore presumed that the paranormal spirits encountered in this historic building are friendly ghosts and wish us living souls no harm. Incidentally, paranormal spirits have also been reported in the Old Masonic Building and, of course, the jailhouse adjacent to the county courthouse. The Hancock Chamber of Commerce recently moved its offices from the Hancock Bank Building to this Old City Hall on Second Street.

June 4-12 is National Fishing and Boating Week

Guest Column
By James Cummins

National Fishing and Boating Week is June 4 through June 12, 2022, which is the perfect time to celebrate Mississippi's bountiful fisheries and other aquatic resources, as well as relax. A few reminders if you plan on fishing or boating. Check both state and local town/city regulations. Keep a 6-foot social distance between yourself and others. Do not touch public surfaces, such as benches or water fountains. Wash your hands thoroughly before and after fishing and after touching any public surfaces. Stay home if you are sick or have any symptoms of COVID-19.

Let's look at a few quotes regarding fishing...

President Herbert Hoover once said, "To go fishing is the chance to wash one's soul with pure air, with the rush of the brook, or with the shimmer of sun on blue water. It brings meekness and inspiration from the decency of nature, charity toward tackle-makers, patience toward fish, a mockery of profits and egos, a quieting of hate, a rejoicing that you do not have to decide a darned thing until next week. And it is discipline in the equality of men–for all men are equal before fish."

And President Dwight D. Eisenhower said, "The problems of juvenile delinquency decrease in direct proportion to the opportunities of our young people to enjoy outlets for their energies in sports...I have observed the resourcefulness and stability of young who have had an opportunity to learn how to take care of themselves... as fishermen." Sometimes I wonder if many of the problems of our young people could not be solved by introducing them to activities that are wholesome and result in a greater appreciation of the world around them, not become hostile to it. And there is no better time than the present to introduce them to fishing.

Mississippi is blessed with farm ponds, reservoirs, oxbow lakes, rivers, and streams. We are also the beneficiaries of good fisheries management by the Mississippi Department of Wildlife, Fisheries, and Parks, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, the USDA Natural Resources Conservation Service, and the USDA Forest Service.

Participation in fishing and boating week events actually helps fund efforts to conserve our natural waterways. A portion of all fishing tackle and license sales fund the conservation of our nation's waterways through a program called the Sport Fish Restoration Program.

During National Fishing and Boating Week, I encourage you to carry your son, daughter, niece, nephew, or other young person fishing. The values it will instill will last a lifetime. And there is no better way to celebrate National Fishing and Boating Week while you still can!

And finally, another quote from President Herbert Hoover, "Fishing is much more than fish. It is the great occasion when we may return to the fine simplicity of our forefathers."

James L. Cummins is executive director of Wildlife Mississippi, a non-profit, conservation organization founded to conserve, restore, and enhance fish, wildlife, and plant resources throughout Mississippi. Their web site is www.wildlifemiss.org.

Hancock woman jailed for meth trafficking; officers warn that most meth now contains fentanyl

ECHO STAFF

Hancock County Sheriff's Narcotics Agents last week arrested a Bayside Park woman, charging her with violations related to drug possession, Sheriff Ricky Adam said in a press release.

Annise Tooley, 53, was charged with two counts of possession of a controlled substance, Adam said.

"Beginning in May, Hancock County Sheriff's Narcotics Division began receiving complaints of possible drug trafficking occurring at Tooley's residence in the 7000 block of Union Street in the Bayside Park community," Adam said. "After investigating the complaints, narcotics agents established probable cause and applied for a search warrant, which was executed on May 23. During the search, narcotics agents discovered felony amounts of methamphetamine 'ice,' mixed with fentanyl, and Oxycodone pills. The dent of the Hancock County Board of Supervisors, read a proclamation from the board making May 23-27 Law Enforcement Week in the county, and said that "every 57 minutes, a law enforcement officer will be killed in the line of duty somewhere in the United States."

Chaplain Jeb Banashak of the Hancock County Sheriff's Office acted as master of ceremonies for the event and said it paid special honor to six area officers who lost their lives in the line of duty:

• Deputy Dennis Tartavoulle, Hancock County Sheriff's Office, End of Watch, May 14, 2000.

• Trooper Ennis "Paul" Denham, Mississippi Highway Patrol, End of Watch, Dec. 27, 1999.

• Trooper William "Bill" Kenny, Mississippi Highway Patrol, End of Watch, Dec. 21, 1967.

• Trooper Cyril Reichart, Mississippi Highway Patrol, End of Watch, Feb. 5, 1947.

Pastor Tyrone Dastugue of Word of Faith Christian Fellowship gave the invocation. Members of the Hancock High School ROTC presented the colors; Ron Skinner sang the National Anthem; Ernest Taylor of the Hancock County Sheriff's Office led the Pledge of Allegiance.

Hancock Sheriff Ricky Adam, Capt. Anthony Gambino of the Diamondhead Police Department, Chief Mike Prendergast of the Waveland Police Department, Assistant Chief Alvin Kingston of the Bay St. Louis Police Department and Sgt. Paul Fernandez of the Mississippi Highway Patrol placed a wreath on the Law Enforcement Memorial in front of the courthouse.

Hancock High School instructor Len Jenkins played Taps, and Pastor Charlie Buckley of the Bay St. Louis Church of Christ gave the benediction.

As I've gotten older, I've realized that I wished I had paid more attention to things like Grandaddy's stories about his service during World War II.

When we're young, we don't really realize what a gift it is to have them around.

The seniors and the center staff always thank me for covering their events, but it is I who should be thanking them.

I don't usually feel all that comfortable in crowds, never have, but on Saturday, I felt calmer and happier than I had felt in a long time.

I hope the senior center continues to provide these much-needed services to our senior citizen community for another 50 years.

I hope that people realize the value of our seniors and fight more to provide much needed services to them after they have spent a lifetime contributing to society.

Thank you to the Hancock County Senior Citizens Center for always welcoming me with open arms, for inspiring me to do better, for teaching me so many new things, and for the joy it brings me to see your smiling faces.

CHIEF MASTER SGT. RAY SHEEHY USAF (RET.)

Chief Master Sgt. Ray Sheehy USAF (Ret.) was born on January 18, 1930, in Limon Costa Rica. He was one of seven siblings. His father was superintendent of the United Fruit Company railroad. When his father retired in 1941 the family moved to San Jose, Costa Rica where they owned and operated a pensione next to the American Embassy. In 1944 he followed the family tradition and followed his three older brothers and was sent to Bay St. Louis, Mississippi to finish his education at St. Stanislaus. While at St. Stanislaus he played tennis, ran track and was editor of the school paper in his sr. year. In his Jr. year he won the Mississippi state high school doubles tennis tournament.

Ray graduated in 1948 and went immediately in the Army/Air Force which later became the Air Force. The Korean War was getting ready to break out and that was the start of a 30-year career with the Air Force retiring as a Chief Master Sergeant. He started out as an air policeman/ dog handler, changing his career field later to communications. During his military time he was assigned to Albrook Air Force Base in the Panama Canal Zone (where he earned his college degree from LSU); Dobins AFB, Shepperd AFB, March AFB, Brize Norton AFB UK, Tempelhoff AFB, Berlin Germany, Clark AFB the Phillipines,Tan Son Nhut and Vauntau Viet Nam where he served 3 tours where he was the undersea cable commander of the USAF com unit. (While in Vietnam he became friends with Senator Barry Goldwater and helped him set up a communication system out of the Goldwater home in Scottsdale AZ so the military could call back to their families in the states at no charge. Senator Goldwater paid for everything himself). He also built and was in charge of cable towers in Houma, LA, Texas Tower, Lake City Tenn, and Mobile Al. When he was stationed in Lompoc Ca, he was in charge of missile training and launches as the head performing quality controller. He retired at Tinker AFB Oklahoma where he was Chief of maintenance for the 1876 Communications Sq.

Of all his numerous awards and medals, he received throughout his military career he was most proud of being awarded the Bronze Star.

He took advantage of getting a good education through the military and earned his collage degree and two master's degrees. He also became deeply involved in the Toastmaster organization becoming a DTM (distinguished toastmaster), using this to go around the country speaking on behalf of the forgotten Vietnam veterans after retirement from the military.

After retirement he used his training in quality control be getting involved in off base actions. He formed a chapter of the American Association of quality control in Oklahoma City. He became president of the local chapter and helped General Motors, ATT, General Motors battery plant and Kerr McKee Oil and Gas company to establish a sound quality program in their production plants and oil fields.

He was hired by Kerr McKee Oil Co in Oklahoma City as assistant to Mr. McKee's executive secretary to coordinate air transportation and use of their 7 Lear jets for the executives and board members to the various locations in the US and Canada. He also coordinated all Angel flights for PanAmerican Oil in Edmonton, Canada. PanAmerican oil was owned by Kerr McKee.

While living in Oklahoma he was very active with his Toastmaster duties. He started chapters in several prisons and went to other clubs that needed help and built them back up.

He left Kerr McKee when he was offered a job with ITT Courier as a quality control programmer at the assembly plant in Tempe, AZ. The plant produced all computer and printer program equipment for a national system. He was first assigned to Tulsa, Ok as a Courier field manager. That is where he met and married his love, Pat.

A few years later he was offered a job back with the Federal Government with GSA and FEMA as an inspector, trainer and communications responder for all national disasters in the Pacific and west Coast. He retired in 1994 when Ray and Pat moved to Diamondhead and built their home.

Not one to ever sit still, he became immediately involved in everything. He loved St. Stanislaus and found out the home for the retired Brothers had an old telephone system. So, he took it on himself to tear out all the old system and replace it with the latest equipment (at no cost for anything to the school).

He later became President of the Alumni Association. He went around the state and collected all the data and documents of the history of the school and opened an archive office in the school. (Which was destroyed by Katrina). He also set up a program with the alumni and went down to Latin America and recruited new students for the school.

He worked with then Sheriff Ronnie Petersen and Bay St. Louis disaster director Bobby Boudin to upgrade the 911 system in the Bay. They traveled several times to Jackson and met with state representatives.

Ray then became very active with the Red Cross making blood bags at the blood drives on the coast for 10 years until the Red Cross eased out volunteers. He got the nick name" the vampire of Diamondhead"

He was also very active in the state, especially Harrison County when disasters hit due to his experience with FEMAfor many years.

Ray's last big volunteer time was with the NASA INFINITY Center in Hancock County as a guide for 13 years. All his years of air, rocket shots and speaking fluent Spanish was the perfect fit. He loved teaching the hundreds of school children that came through daily on school tours.

Ray was very active with all Diamondhead activities. He and Pat formed the original Diamondhead Yacht Club in 1998 (which later dissolved after Katrina.) There was always a 4th of July boat parade, (which after Desert Storm the returning vets and their families were honored by riding on the boats), a Christmas boat parade complete with Santa and Mrs Clause handing out gifts and beads to the children. The club also worked with the Beau Rivage Casino in holding large yacht tours for various charities. (again, before Katrina). He was the head of the Coastal Cleanup for the Diamondhead bayous and parts of the Jordan River around Diamondhead.

Ray loved Mardi Gras and he and Pat joined the Krewe of Diamondhead in 1995. He became the second Parade Lt. for 6 years. During that time, he took the parade from being mostly golf carts to a full-blown parade with bands, floats, and having the ROTC from Bay High and Hancock always involved. He was honored by the Coast Tourism board for having the best and safest family parade on the coast from Mobile to New Orleans.

After Captain Benny Mistretta, the first Captain, retired he named Ray as the new Captain. His first year was Katrina. So many changes were made. Ray always had the Air Force ROTC from Bay High at every ball performing duties such as picking up guests at their cars, opening doors, escorting the women into the event and ALWAYS presenting the colors before an event. He had the king and queen honored every year at the racetrack in New Orleans and there was a special race in their honor. Buses were arranged for the members to go to New Orleans and have lunch in the private dining room and reserved seating for all the races. He became Captain Emeritus in 2011. He had his wife Pat design and then ordered the embroidered Kings Club patch that all past kings wear on their tux or blazers today. He was also a member of the Boaters Association and the Krewe of Olympus.

He was a lifetime member of the American Legion (where he the adjutant for chapter 139 Bay St. Louis), DAV, VFW and the Air Force Association where he was state president in Oklahoma and Arizona. He was a board member of the Harrison Red Cross for several years and past president of the St. Stanislaus Alumni Association. He was past president of the Mississippi chapter of NARF (national association of retired federal employees) making many trips to Washington DC to lobby for the retired employees. He was also a member of the Krewe of Diamondhead Kings Club and past member of the Fin and Feather club in Diamondhead.

Ray had many hobbies, but golf and fishing were his favorite. He was a scratch golfer and for years while in the Air Force represented the AF in golf tournaments all over the world including playing in the Bing Crosby and Bob Hope tournaments as an amateur. But his favorite golf partner was a young and upcoming actor he met in the 50s while stationed in CA. They played for years and became great friends. That man was Clint Eastwood. But when he developed gouty arthritis, he gave up golf and turned to fishing. There was nothing more he enjoyed then being on the water with a fishing pole in his hand. His beloved fishing boat was destroyed in Katrina never to be found.

Ray was a devout catholic and was a member of the Most Holy Trinity Catholic Church.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Frank and Anita Sheehy, brothers Fred, John, and Arthur Sheehy, and sisters Margaret Littleton, Cathleen Stipe, Mary Ann Doherty, and stepdaughter Shelly Nardyz Flies. He is survived by his beloved wife of 44 years, Patricia (Pat) Sheehy, daughter Patricia (David) Wirfs, and stepson, Lee (Susan) Nardyz, grandchildren Amy (Justin) Tucker, Joseph Wirfs, Halle Nardyz, Nicklas Nardyz, and Hannah Flies and his beloved animals Smokey, Charlie, and Foxy. Plus, numerous nieces and nephews in the US and Costa Rica.

The family would like to thank Peyton and all the staff at Encompass Hospice and Melissa and her staff at Serenity Pearl Living Center in Picayune, MS for their wonderful care of Ray in his last months.

Visitation will be Saturday June 4th from 10:00 -11:30 and the service at 11:30 followed by full military honors at Most Holy Trinity Catholic Church 9062 Kiln-Delisle Rd, Pass Christian, MS. A reception will follow at the church.

Reflections on "Cities of the Plain"

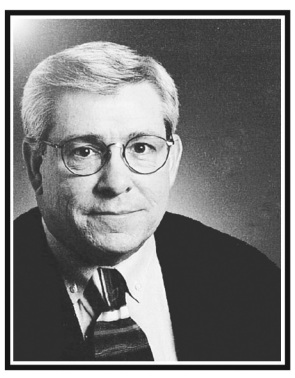
By REV. C. GERALD RICHARDSON, D. MIN



C. GERALD RICHARDSON, D. MIN.

One of the truly outstanding American writers of the 20th Century was Cormac McCarthy. He is the author of several best selling novels which include well known works such as, "No Country For Old Men" and "All The Pretty Horses" which were both made into well known movies. He has also produced several other outstanding works which may be less known, but which also engage the reader with thought provoking, and at times, troubling subjects which call for significant reflection.

A recent reading of his 1998 novel, "Cities of the Plain", which is part of The Border Trilogy including "All The Pretty Horses" and "The Crossing" has reawakened a long held appreciation for this outstanding writer. His work probes the deepest places in human experience. It can be emotional, profound, and sometimes dark. He does draw the reader into a deep exploration of the inner life, and he raises profound questions which need to be addressed in order to comprehend and cope with the realities of our lives on this earth.

The epilogue of this novel is, in itself, a masterpiece of insight and writing skill. It reads much like the apocalyptic biblical book of Revelation, but it does not evoke the sometimes harsh condemnation which characterizes that book.

One of the primary characters of the novel has a dream which occurs years after the original timeline. A key moment in the dream comes when a companion states, "I'm guessing every man is more than he supposes." While the language is not gender inclusive, the truth of the statement is hard to deny. It raises important questions. What do we suppose about ourselves? Are we competent or not? Do we have value in and of ourselves, or are we dependent upon external influences to validate our worthiness? Do we assume that we are loved and accepted, or do we spend most of life working to earn a place in the world that we are not sure we deserve? What suppositions do we make about our worth? Are they valid? Are we capable of accepting that we are "enough" just the way we are?

These questions are not intended to recreate the "Little Jack Horner" complex. It may be recalled that he sat in the corner contemplating what a good boy he was. On the other hand, it is important to find the ability to recognize ourselves, accept ourselves, give a blessing to who we are created to be, and then work to become the best version of ourselves that we can.

I doubt (although I do not know) that Cormac McCarthy was much of a religious man, but I do know that he possessed a deep spirituality. He was in touch with the spiritual depths of life. He worked at it. His writing reflects it. He is worth reading for those who are willing to plumb the depths of what it means to be human.

PUBLIC NOTICE
OF SIXTEENTH SECTION LAND
RECLASSIFICATION
The Hancock County Board of Education hereby gives notice of the reclassification of the following described parcels of sixteenth section land located in Hancock County, Mississippi in compliance with the requirements of Section 29-3-37, Mississippi Code of 1972, as amended.
LEGAL DESCRIPTION:
1.0 acre Parcel #*029-0-29-009.001 – Section 29-5S-15W (1 acre)- classified as Residential
6.03 acres Parcel# 029-0-29-009.002 - Section 29-5S-15W (6.03acres) classified as Agricultural Each parcel listed above is recorded in categorized land descriptions that do not meet the requirements of said category. Therefore, in the best interest of Hancock County School District and for the financial return to be at a higher rate, the two properties will combine for a total acreage of 7.03 acres. Once combined, the 7.03 acres will be re-classified as "Other" and be assigned to parcel #*029-0-29-009-001.
Any interested parties desiring to object to this classification must submit such objection in writing to the Chancery Clerk of Hancock County, Mississippi on or before June 8, 2022.

2022 Emily de Montluzin Foreign Language Scholarship Awarded to Danielle Rita Dey

SEA COAST ECHO

The Emily de Montluzin Foreign Language Scholarship for 2022 has been awarded to Danielle Rita Dey, who is completing her freshman year in college at the University of Mississippi.

Dey, who was also the recipient of the $5,000 de Montluzin Scholarship for 2021, is majoring in International Studies (with a concentration in East Asia, particularly Korea) in the Croft Institute at Ole Miss, a highly selective program of study open by invitation only to academically superior students who wish to pursue International Studies with career goals of foreign service or international business.

The Croft Institute offers its students the opportunity to immerse themselves in a comprehensive program centering upon the history, economics, politics, culture, and language of the nation each participant selects.

"This is only the third time in the history of the Foreign Language Scholarship that the award has been presented twice to the same student," said Board Member Lorraine de Montluzin. "Danielle's demonstrated record at the Croft Institute and her laser-focused commitment to mastering the Korean language and attaining a thorough knowledge of Korean politics, economics, and culture have been outstanding and should in due course make her a valuable asset to the United States' diplomatic service or to a government agency."

"I have always wanted to work directly with or in foreign countries," Dey has said.

She has noted that when originally researching possible career paths, she "found that Korean is on the critical list for government agencies" and is considered "an essential language highly sought after in employees and crucial for investigations and international affairs."

As part of her required coursework at the Croft Institute she will spend her junior year abroad studying in South Korea with the goal of becoming fully fluent in the Korean language.

Dey, a 2021 graduate of Our Lady Academy in Bay St. Louis, MS, is the daughter of Daniel and Jamie Dey of Kiln, MS.

Paula Lacoste Inducted into The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi

SEA COAST ECHO

Paula Lacoste of Diamondhead, Mississippi, was recently initiated into The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi, the nation's oldest and most selective all-discipline collegiate honor society. Lacoste was initiated at Arkansas State University.

Lacoste is among approximately 25,000 students, faculty, professional staff and alumni to be initiated into Phi Kappa Phi each year. Membership is by invitation only and requires nomination and approval by a chapter. Only the top 10 percent of seniors and 7.5 percent of juniors are eligible for membership. Graduate students in the top 10 percent of the number of candidates for graduate degrees may also qualify, as do faculty, professional staff and alumni who have achieved scholarly distinction.

Phi Kappa Phi was founded in 1897 under the leadership of undergraduate student Marcus L. Urann who had a desire to create a different kind of honor society: one that recognized excellence in all academic disciplines. Today, the Society has chapters on more than 325 campuses in the United States, its territories and the Philippines. Its mission is "To recognize and promote academic excellence in all fields of higher education and to engage the community of scholars in service to others."

Since its founding, more than 1.5 million members have been initiated into Phi Kappa Phi. Some of the organization's notable members include former President Jimmy Carter, NASA astronaut Wendy Lawrence, novelist John Grisham and YouTube co-founder Chad Hurley. Each year, Phi Kappa Phi awards more than $1 million to outstanding students and members through graduate and dissertation fellowships, undergraduate study abroad grants, funding for post-baccalaureate development, and grants for local, national and international literacy initiatives. For more information about Phi Kappa Phi, visit www.phikappaphi.org.

Our Lady Academy's Emmy Bosarge recognized for literary achievements

SEA COAST ECHO

Our Lady Academy (OLA) Freshman Emmy Bosarge was the recipient of two literary awards from the Scholastic Art & Writing Awards program. Emmy's poem entitled "Song of Sirens" and her photography piece "I'm Fine" were chosen by The Alliance for Young Artists & Writers as the 2022 Regional Silver Key awards. Established in 1923, the Scholastic Art & Writing Awards program is the nation's longest-running program supporting student achievement in the visual and literary arts.

In 2019, Emmy discovered her true passion for writing after attending a workshop under the guidance and instruction of Mississippi novelist, Margaret McMullan. McMullan recognized Emmy's talent and persuaded her to enter her literary work into the Scholastic Art and Writing Regional Competition. In 2020, Emmy was the recipient of the Regional Silver Key award for her flash fiction called "Destination; Deliverance". In 2021, Emmy's poem entitled "Lotus" earned the Golden Key Regional Award and the National Gold Medal Award.

Emmy is recognized as an accomplished artist and writer and is currently working on her first novel entitled "Devolution of the Rose".

When Emmy breaks from writing, she turns her attention to the Youth for Youth (Y4Y) project. This is a project that her sisters, Abby and Jordan had launched but were unable to continue developing. Abby passed away this past November and Jordan continued to pursue her college education away. The program formed by youth for youth was created to attract kids to work on community projects that would be fun and interesting.

Emmy Bosarge

"I think youth representation when done by adults, isn't always authentic. So obviously, if there is a community service group that is youth run, there is a different perspective," said Emmy.

For more information on the Y4Y program or to become a member of this organization, contact emmybosarge@gmail.com.

Samuel Wilcox Initiated into Omicron Delta Kappa

SEA COAST ECHO

Samuel Wilcox, a native of Diamondhead, was recently initiated into the University of Alabama at Birmingham Circle of Omicron Delta Kappa, the National Leadership Honor Society. The Society welcomed 1,971 new initiates from 78 universities during April 2022.

Students initiated into the Society must be sophomores, juniors, seniors, or graduate/professional students in the top 35% of their class, demonstrate leadership experience in at least one of the five pillars, and embrace the ODK ideals. Fewer than five percent of students on a campus are invited to join each year.

Omicron Delta Kappa Society, the National Leadership Honor Society, was founded in Lexington, Virginia, on December 3, 1914. A group of 15 students and faculty members established the Society to recognize and encourage leadership at the collegiate level. The founders established the ODK Idea-the concept that individuals representing all phases of collegiate life should collaborate with faculty and others to support the campus and community. ODK's mission is to honor and develop leaders; encourage collaboration among students, faculty, staff, and alumni; and promote ODK's leadership values of collaboration, inclusivity, integrity, scholarship, and service on college and university campuses throughout North America. The Society's national headquarters are located in Lexington, Virginia.

Our Lady Academy (OLA) senior Devin Graham signed her Letter of Intent with Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College (MGCCC) to join their official dance team, the Perkettes. Established in 1952, the Perkettes are proud members of MGCCC Band of Gold, exemplifying tradition, precision and excellence.

Devin is a member of the OLA Campus Ministry, Students Against Destructive Decisions (SADD), Crescent Athletic Club, SSC Varsity Cheerleader, and holds title as Vice President of the National Art Honor Society.

Devin's ultimate plan is to pursue a Bachelor of Science degree in Speech Pathology. She is a member of Our Lady of the Gulf Church and the daughter of Sean and Janelle Graham of Bay St. Louis.

Agency Program Only Allows Aquaculture Leases in Spots

BY HUNTER DAWKINS
THE GAZEBO GAZETTE

Despite a victorious state legislative session for aquaculture operations in Mississippi to help recover oysters, the new pilot program for bottom land production is limited to where operations can exist.

According to Mississippi House Bill 972; which was authored by Marine Resources Committee Chairman Timmy Ladner (R-Poplarville), the Department of Marine Resources shall lease to oyster and seafood processors who only operate in the waters adjacent to Hancock County.

The bill authorizes the department (Department of Marine Resources) to enter into leases for oyster reefs in designated areas," said Mississippi District 48 Senator Mike Thompson (R-Pass Christian, Long Beach, Gulfport). "These bottom land areas are defined on the agency's map in Hancock County, which allows them to lease privately for 5 years to oyster producers. Right now, we're up to around 97% mortality to bottom land oysters in the state of Mississippi. This is an effort to provide an opportunity for private sector development in oyster production."

Harbor Bell unveiling at BWYC Review of the Fleet

BY JAMES KEATING MD

The Bay Waveland Yacht Club (BWYC) celebrated its Annual Review of the Fleet Sunday April 24 ,2021. This event designates the official opening of the sailing season of BWYC for the year. Commodore Clinton Edwards officiated the opening ceremony and noted the rich historical heritage and traditions in the 125th year of this yacht club. The annual boat review followed the ceremony and afterwards, a jazz brunch was enjoyed by the membership.

A Harbor Bell was unveiled by Kim Uram during the ceremony of the Review of the Fleet. The bell was donated to the BWYC by the Ladies Auxiliary and mounted at the entrance to the harbor. Bells have been employed by harbors and navies for centuries and possess considerable, traditional significance and affection with sailors past and present. The bells have served ceremonial, timekeeping, alarm, and seafaring fog signal functions. There is a rich heritage of the placement of bells in harbors or channels to guide sailing vessels, large and small, through perilous seas near rocky shores or shallow shoals in dense fog, especially at night. Small bells have been inserted on floating sea marks leading to a harbor which are also called buoy

Meet Eddie. We have all varieties of Curs in the South, and this little guy looks to be a Catahoula Cur, or perhaps a mix. He is a 4 month old brindle cutie, and he has the most beautiful spots and blotches. He is super sweet, playful, and smart! We'd love for him to find his forever home soon, with a responsible, loving family. Please consider your work schedule and social commitments when contemplating adding a puppy to your life. These little guys require positive training and lots of quality time with their families, as spending excessive amounts of time kenneled, or relegated to a backyard without supervision is not conducive to raising a healthy, happy dog. Eddie is full of love and life, and he deserves a loving family, single person or couple who will love him and make him part of their lives. If you are interested in meeting Eddie, please stop by the shelter during visiting hours Mon-Fri 10am-3pm (Tues 1pm-3pm) to meet him. Or, please call our front desk at 228-466-4516 to schedule an appointment. Please bring your dog(s) and kids along for the visit to ensure compatibility.

"Linda (Pitts) has been the person over the last five years," she said. "And she's always there and hustling. Then ole COVID came along, well, when COVID came along, it broke our hearts, because we didn't know what we were going to do or how we were going to do it to take care of our seniors. So what we did, we put on our boots, pulled those straps way up high, bumped our heads and said we can do this. So we decided that we were going to prepare meals and have them delivered cooked to our seniors throughout the entire county. Which we did. Me, Michael, Mrs. Mel, and Mrs. Linda. She was right there with us all along, supporting us and being with us and we needed that at that time."

bells and/or fog bells.

The bell is cherished by the United States Navy and other mariners all over the world because of its functional and ceremonial benefits. Early timekeeping on ships at sea was accomplished by monitoring the trickle of sand through an hour glass and sounding of the bell at hourly or thirty minute intervals. A bell was rung rapidly for five minutes in the event of a fire aboard a sailing vessel. When an important person such as a ship captain or a flag officer arrives or departs a ship, a ringing of the ship bell signals his presence on deck. The clang of maritime bells is a tangible reminder of the rich history and heritage of our sailors who ply the seas in all types of weather for fun, sport, military service, or commercial profit. The harbor bell at the BWYC is a fitting symbol of the naval heritage that this seaside hamlet has held dear to its heart for three hundred years.

Bontemps was the first Hancock County native to die in battle during World War I.

The American Legion Auxiliary Miss Poppy and Little Miss Poppies lay a traditional wreath of crepe poppies, which were made by hospitalized veterans.

An hour later, Post 139 members returned to the post home for a separate ceremony.

Post Commander Rick Stinson honored "those who shed blood" and "those who gave all" for the American people.

The post concluded Sunday's observance with a 21-gun salute.

St. Clare Church again honored those who sacrificed with a ceremony on Monday.

"God bless and honor to all of our U.S. military men and women who have died while serving in the United States armed forces," church officials posted on social media. "St. Clare has placed a wreath in the church to salute them for their courage and thank them for giving their lives for us so we may be 'the land of the free and the home of the brave.'"

Thompson is the Senate Vice Chairman of the Ports and Marine Resources Committee. Additionally, Thompson will represent portions of Bay St. Louis and Waveland following the redistricting done at the state level this year.

When asked about expansion of the aquaculture operations outside of the Hancock County designated areas, Thompson stated "I think it would have to depend on what the production is from these two areas during their initial time. These are strictly defined areas on the agency map, existing reefs and for bottom lands only."

Senator Philip Moran (R-Kiln, Bay St. Louis, Diamondhead, Pass Christian) was on the conference committee for the bill and is the Chairman of the Senate Ports and Marine Resources Committee. Although Moran has represented this area for a decade, the redistricting maps approved take these designated regions away.

The bottom land reefs selected in the bill; which are open to aquaculture production leases, are the tonging area in Hancock County from the Bay St. Louis/Pass Christian Bridge to Long Point and the Telegraph reef. These designated spots are 500 feet offshore to one mile offshore in Hancock County.

Mississippi's Department of Marine Resources must make a finding that the lessee is an oyster or seafood processor who only operates in the waters adjacent to Hancock County. Before renewing a five year lease, the agency may adjust the acreage and price of the lease to reflect the oyster production.

In a statement given by the Department of Marine Resources Executive Director Joe Spraggins, the agency acknowledged "this legislation was greatly appreciated and helped support our agency as we work to enhance, protect and conserve Mississippi's marine resources."

HB 972 was signed into law by Mississippi Governor Tate Reeves on March 22, 2022 after going through both chambers of the legislature following a conference report.

Tooley was transported to the Hancock County Adult Detention Center, where she was released the next day on $50,000 in bonds, jail records show.

"This investigation, and other recent ones, should serve as a statement that we are actively investigating complaints of drug trafficking coming into our office," Adam said. "We are asking the public to help us fight crime by reporting criminal activities to us and we will continue to do our part in pursuing those who prey on our communities."

"The drugs recovered in this investigation highlight an inherent risk with drug usage," Narcotics Cmdr. Ben Taylor said, "you never know what you are truly putting into your body. In fact, most methamphetamine 'ice' we are seizing is also testing positive for fentanyl. We continue to experience a high number of overdoses relating to fentanyl as we responded to at least six in the last week, and three of them were fatal."

Abigail Marlin of Diamondhead has been named to the University of Evansville Dean's List for outstanding academic achievement during the Spring 2022 semester. Marlin is studying Theatre Management at the University of Evansville (UE), a private university located in Evansville, Indiana.

More than 500 students at UE were named to the Dean's List. To merit this honor, a student must have carried a full academic load of 12 hours or more and have earned a grade point average of 3.5 or above.

Students at the University of Evansville shape powerful and enduring change. UE is the first in Indiana to be designated as an Ashoka U Changemaker Campus, and its changemaking culture empowers students to improve the world around them as UE Changemakers. UE has an array of majors in business; engineering; the arts and sciences; and health science programs. UE has a diverse student body that represents 44 states and 52 countries. "Among his various contributions, Dr. Edney worked with various organizations and partnerships to explain COVID and answer questions. He has also worked with providers to sign them up to give COVID vaccine, and he fielded questions from providers about allergies and other complications related to the administration of the vaccine," said Dobbs.

Edney appreciates the time he has spent working closed with Dobbs.

"Following in the footsteps of Dr. Dobbs, I, too, hope to serve as a catalyst for change – especially with infant and maternal mortality, the opioids battle plaguing the country right now, and moving the needle in preventive health and health equity issues," Edney added.

A summa cum laude graduate of both William Carey University and the University of Mississippi School of Medicine, Edney is a board-certified General Internist with subspecialty board certification in Addiction Medicine. He completed his internship and residency in Internal Medicine at the University of Virginia.

He has practiced general primary care internal medicine in Vicksburg since 1991 and has worked actively in the field of addiction medicine since 2013. He currently serves as an addiction medicine specialist for various inpatient residential facilities and outpatient programs in the state and has a private practice at the Medical Associates of Vicksburg.

Edney is a former president of the Mississippi State Medical Association and currently serves as a board member on the Mississippi State Board of Medical Licensure. He has also served as a fellow and laureate for the Mississippi Chapter of the American College of Physicians and a fellow of the American Society of Addiction Medicine.

Edney will be replacing Thomas Dobbs, MD, MPH, who is resigning from his position at the end of July.
